

The 5th ESAFON Global Impact Summit GLOBAL BLUE IMPACT INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Strategic & Practical Tools for Asset Owners, Family Offices, Institutional Investors, Fund Managers, Social Entrepreneurs and Impact Stakeholders in Blue Economy
April 29th, 2021 - Mövenpick Hotel - Geneva

Geneva, December 1st, 2020

Dear ESAFON Members & Partners,

We are delighted to announce ESAFON 5th Annual forthcoming conference “Global Blue Impact Investment Strategy” conference to be held in Geneva, April 29th, 2021.

ESAFON has recently joined the UN Finance Initiative as an active member of the UNEP Sustainable Blue Economy Chapter based in Geneva. This forms a leadership community accelerating the transition towards the sustainable use of the world’s ocean, seas and marine resources.

For more than 5 years now, we have had the ambition to contribute to change the capital market behaviour and prove and demonstrate with early impact investors that sustainable managed assets have better returns than traditional one. We are more than ever convinced that a sustainable green economy is the only prerequisite to the survival of our planet. Blue Ocean and land & forestry protection and development have a global reach to achieve zero gas emission by 2050.

We need focused investment strategies to support smart transfer of technologies to strengthen business models of the social entrepreneurs taking into account the circular economy principles, allowing them to become the leading sustainable large tech companies of tomorrow.

At the same time, existing boards of large cap companies will have to realise that ESG compliance is not enough to remain competitive and attractive. Shareholder values, more than ever, will be built upon from climate change active initiatives! Top-down and bottom-up engagement from all actors of the value chain towards a sustainable blue and green economy is crucial!

Two-thirds of our planet’s surface and 97% of our waters are ocean-related. Our future is intimately linked to its future. The ocean is a climate regulator, absorbing 25% of our CO2 emissions and releasing half of our oxygen. Ocean routes carry 90% of world trade. The ocean is the new economic frontier with marine-related economies predicted to reach nearly 3 trillion dollars of global gross value by 2030.

The ocean is a primary source of protein for more than 1 billion of the poorest people along the coasts of developing countries.

80% of the world population is living no more than 80 kilometres from the sea-side and the value of global ocean assets is estimated to already be at over US$ 24 trillion making it the 7th largest economy in the world in GDP terms. The global Blue Economy is expected to expand at twice the rate of the mainstream economy by 2030. Paradoxically, despite keen and growing investor interest in ocean-related opportunities, the ocean is still today one of the least invested of all the UN Sustainable Development Goals, particularly from a private capital point of view.

We, at ESAFON, together with our expert network, are determined to help you with the appropriate building blocks and tools needed to design and implement a workable blue impact investment strategy.

Thanks to ESAFON long lasting vision for the future, this 5th Annual Global Impact Summit will allow you to understand framing issues to the development of a sustainable blue economy to protect ocean and mitigate climate change. Join our 150+ delegates and learn more about investible opportunities already providing solutions.

François Golbery, Chairman, ESAFON

Media Release: IPBES #PandemicsReport: Escaping the 'Era of Pandemics'

There is no great mystery about the cause of the COVID-19 pandemic – or of any modern pandemic”, said Dr. Peter Daszak, President of EcoHealth Alliance and Chair of the IPBES workshop. “The same human activities that drive climate change and biodiversity loss also drive pandemic risk through their impacts on our environment. Changes in the way we use land; the expansion and intensification of agriculture; and unsustainable trade, production and consumption disrupt nature and increase contact between wildlife, livestock, pathogens and people. This is the path to pandemics.”

Pandemic risk can be significantly lowered by reducing the human activities that drive the loss of biodiversity, by greater conservation of protected areas, and through measures that reduce unsustainable exploitation of high biodiversity regions. This will reduce wildlife-livestock-human contact and help prevent the spillover of new diseases, says the report.

“The overwhelming scientific evidence points to a very positive conclusion,” said Dr. Daszak. “We have the increasing ability to prevent pandemics – but the way we are tackling them right now largely ignores that ability. Our approach has effectively stagnated – we still rely on attempts to contain and control diseases after they emerge, through vaccines and therapeutics. We can escape the era of pandemics, but this requires a much greater focus on prevention in addition to reaction.”

Don't miss to read the excellent IPBES WORKSHOP ON BIODIVERSITY AND PANDEMICS EXECUTIVE SUMMARY at the following address:

https://ipbes.net/sites/default/files/202011/201104_IPBES_Workshop_on_Diversity_and_Pandemics_Executive_Summary_Digital_Version.pdf

At ESAFON, we think the pandemic has revealed three key weaknesses in human and economic terms:

- 1) A lack of consciousness to climate change impact & upfront readiness for worst case scenario
- 2) A lack of governance for decision-making for an unknowable future & the tools to execute a crisis plan
- 3) A lack of appraisal to balance economic efficiency with economic resiliency

ESAFON is an independent non-profit Swiss Association created 17 years by two partners Anne & François Golbery with the sole objective to drive the impact agenda forward and encourage private and public investors to use impact investment to enhance financial and social returns, better manage risks taking into account externalities and engage stakeholders within the impact ecosystem while preserving the interests of investees.

ESAFON has launched a Swiss Impact Initiative with the objective to gather expertise to scale impact globally from Switzerland. This implies to transform the Swiss Impact Investment Ecosystem including private banking, philanthropic foundations, family offices as well as pension funds and life insurance/re-insurance to drive economies of scale and collaboration amongst investors, intermediaries and investees.

ESAFON is a Member of the World Ocean Council (WOC), an international, cross-sectoral, not-for-profit industry alliance for “Corporate Ocean Responsibility”. ESAFON and WOC share the same vision for a responsible use of a healthy ocean. They join forces to enhance collaboration in bringing together all stakeholders and the investment community to advance the development of a sustainable and productive blue economy.

ESAFON supports several SDG 14 projects including an international coalition to safeguard the Red Sea coral reef and the business development of the first cargo ownership using sails as main propulsion on North Atlantic Roll on/ Roll off route.

ESAFON is a member of UNEP – FI, The UN Sustainable Blue Economy Finance Initiative, a leadership community accelerating the transition towards the sustainable use of the world’s ocean, seas and marine resources

About the Sustainable Development Goals

The Sustainable Development Goals are the blueprint to achieve a better and more sustainable future for all. They address the global challenges we face, including those related to poverty, inequality, climate, environmental degradation, prosperity, peace and justice. The Goals interconnect and in order to leave no one behind, it is important that we achieve each Goal and target by 2030.

ESAFON Partners 2021

United Nations Environment Programme Finance Initiative (UNEP FI) is a partnership between UNEP and the global financial sector to mobilize private sector finance for sustainable development. UNEP FI works with more than 300 members – banks, insurers, and investors – and over 100 supporting institutions – to help create a financial sector that serves people and planet while delivering positive impacts. We aim to inspire, inform and enable financial institutions to improve people’s quality of life without compromising that of future generations. By leveraging the UN’s role, UNEP FI accelerates sustainable finance.

Industry-based principles

UNEP FI supports global finance sector principles to catalyze integration of sustainability into financial market practice. The frameworks UNEP FI has established or co-created include:

Principles for Responsible Banking (PRB) launched with more than 130 banks collectively holding USD 47 trillion in assets, or one third of the global banking sector, on 22 September 2019.

Principles for Sustainable Insurance (PSI), established 2012 by UNEP FI and today applied by one-quarter of the world’s insurers (25% of world premium);

Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI), established in 2006 by UNEP FI and the UN Global Compact, now applied by half the world’s institutional investors (USD 83 trillion).

These frameworks establish the norms for sustainable finance, providing the basis for standard-setting and helping to ensure private finance fulfils its potential role in contributing to achieving the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and Paris Agreement on Climate Change agreed by governments around the world in 2015.

UNEP FI also supports the Sustainable Stock Exchanges Initiative (SSEI), launched in 2012 with UNCTAD, UN Global Compact, and the PRI. Today this involves 90 stock exchanges accounting for almost all publicly-listed capital markets.

We work with our members from the banking, insurance and investment industries, technical experts and key stakeholders, to convene ambitious collective action, facilitate shared learning and co-develop practical resources to equip financial institutions with the knowledge and expertise to embed sustainability into their strategies and operations. We facilitate collaborative projects to develop methodologies and tools, encourage harmonization, promote advances in good practice, and support leadership to accelerate growth in the quantity and quality of sustainable financial institutions.

We aim to create the most effective network for sharing knowledge and best practice and to amplify the collective voice of the finance sector in policy debate, engaging policymakers, regulators and supervisors on the role of the financial sector in contributing to sustainable development.

UNEP FI holds agenda-setting Global and Regional Roundtables to bring together partners and other stakeholders to build momentum to advance sustainable finance market practice and provide clear signals from the financial sector to policymakers on the importance of integrating Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) issues and sustainability impacts into financial decision-making.

 WORLD OCEAN COUNCIL[®] The International Business Alliance for Corporate Ocean Responsibility	The World Ocean Council (WOC) www.oceancouncil.org is a global, cross-sectoral ocean industry leadership alliance committed to “Corporate Ocean Responsibility”, developed by and for the private sector, with a unique and multi-sectoral approach to address cross-cutting issues affecting ocean sustainable development, science and stewardship of the seas. The WOC believes that responsible and coordinated Ocean Business Community efforts are essential to a healthy and productive global ocean and its sustainable use, development and stewardship by a responsible Ocean Business Community. The private sector is the primary user of the ocean, which covers over 71% of the planet, and resources. As such, the Ocean Business Community has a vital role to play in ensuring the sustainable development of our oceans and coasts. Oceans and their resources are interconnected in complex ways, and tackling sustainability and “Corporate Ocean Responsibility” requires substantial and coordinated effort across industrial sectors. The WOC offers the Ocean Business Community the structure and process to collaborate on sustainable development and ensures that the policy makers and other stakeholders understand and engage with leadership companies from the Ocean Business Community.
 Katapult Accelerator	In Katapult Accelerator, (https://katapultaccelerator.com/), we invest in and support startups with a positive impact on our oceans. We do this through our ocean impact accelerator, the Katapult Ocean fund and by creating a positive awareness of the great business opportunities in a sustainable ocean. We have made 23 investments in exciting ocean tech companies from all over the world (7 countries, 4 continents). We have brought them through a 3-month long accelerator program out of Oslo, Norway. We have a global network of more than 100 mentors supporting this, and a team based in Oslo, Norway and San Francisco, US. The investments are backed by a fund with international investors (Norway, Sweden, Germany, the Netherlands, Canada, Singapore). We have built a platform to push the green shift in the ocean industries, our impact is much bigger than the direct investments we make. We work with corporates and investors to encourage more investment, piloting and engagement with ocean tech startups. We attract interest from start-ups all over the world, and currently have a pipeline of more than 1000 ocean technology start-ups. Together with McKinsey & Co we published our report Blue World Perspective during Our Ocean this fall. This outlines the trends we see in the global landscape for ocean tech startups. Since Katapult Accelerator was founded in April 2018, we have become a leading force in ocean technology impact investments. We recently joined the accelerator network of the UN Global Compact Action Platform for Sustainable Ocean Business, and we have been invited to sit on the Norwegian Prime Ministers advisory network for the High-Level Panel for a Sustainable Ocean Economy. We also collaborate with the WEF and Friends of Ocean Action on the Uplink platform to connect the WEF network with ocean startups.
 EPFL Tech ÉCOLE POLYTECHNIQUE FÉDÉRALE DE LAUSANNE Impact	Tech4Impact https://ypi.epfl.ch is EPFL’s sustainable impact initiative under the wings of the Vice Presidency for Innovation and a key instrument for enhancing the University’s sustainable impact. As one of the worldwide leading technical universities and a key player for disruptive innovation in Switzerland and beyond, EPFL is uniquely positioned to realize innovative and entrepreneurial solutions that have the potential to achieve sustainable impact

François Golbery is the Chairman of ESAFON, a not-for-profit independent association registered in the Registrar of the Federal Office in Bern with the objective of promoting and facilitating best practices within the Finance industry. At ESAFON, we are committed to help drive the impact agenda forward as we firmly believe that environmental and social unbalances - well described under the UN SDG's - need urgently to be addressed strategically and financially.

François strongly supports the development of a mainstream global impact capital market driven by investor's willingness and preference to achieve alongside financial returns, environmental and social returns as well.

Through ESAFON and its high profile expert network, Family Offices, strong drivers of Impact Investing, will learn how to develop the strategic and practical tools to master the hard compiling process to due diligence and risk assessment.

François is a global strategic advisor to Start-ups and SME's involved in SDG 14 & 15.

The pandemic has revealed three key weaknesses in human and economic terms:

- 1) A lack of consciousness to climate change impact & upfront readiness for worse case scenario
- 2) A lack of governance for decision-making for an unknowable future & execution of a crisis plan
- 3) A lack of appraisal to balance economic efficiency with economic resiliency

In 1988, he started-up and grew the French subsidiary of IIR, a US leading conference business organization in Paris as the most profitable entity of the group and was elected Manager of the Year in 1992 & 1993. He received his prize from Edward de Bono, the originator of the lateral thinking concept. Took over the overall responsibility of the Portuguese office and consequently had a team of 150 people under his responsibility.

He holds an MBA in Finance from the University of Hartford (Connecticut), under the patronage of Michel Barnier, former Commissioner of the Internal Market Division of the European Commission and now in charge of negotiating the Brexit for the EU. François is a member of the Royal Ocean Racing Club.
